

Eisenhower's Upcoming Lectures and Special Programs

It's difficult to be bored this time of year, isn't it? Between the Palm Springs International Film Festival, the Humana Challenge, the BNP Paribas Tennis Open and the numerous art festivals, there is something for everyone. That is also true at Eisenhower Medical Center! In this issue of Health Notes, we are highlighting several upcoming special events being held on the hospital campus in Rancho Mirage (see the shaded pink box below). Be sure to also check out the calendar for lectures on various topics held throughout the valley.

Happy New Year from Eisenhower Medical Center
