

Physician of the Month December 2012

Richard Loftus, MD

By: AMANDA GREER

I would like Dr. Loftus to be recognized for his amazing hands-on and personable care he offers his patients. He makes himself available by cell phone or text message. I had a patient in my office recently that had a concern about a test that was ordered, the patient text Dr. Loftus and he responded back in a heartbeat. Dr. Loftus on many occasions has come into my office with his patients to make sure they got here ok, understand the testing, and that we perform the correct tests. Dr. Loftus is a very impressive physician.
