

Barbara Sinatra Hosts 12th Annual Barbara Sinatra Children's Center at Eisenhower Skins Polo Game March 26

BARBARA SINATRA CHILDREN'S CENTER
SKINS POLO GAME

This was drawn by a child at the
Barbara Sinatra Children's Center

Benefiting the non-profit Barbara Sinatra Children's Center at Eisenhower Counseling & Preventing Child Abuse.

20th ANNIVERSARY 1986 - 2006

SUNDAY MARCH 26, 2006

It promises to be a day of great fun, elegant terrace dining, fabulous fashions and exciting festivities. . . all in the name of a greater cause. On Sunday, March 26, the plush grounds of Indio's Eldorado Polo Club will be the site of the 12th Annual Barbara Sinatra Children's Center Skins Polo Game. The popular event, hosted by Children's Center Founder and Chairwoman Barbara Sinatra, and event co-chair and desert denizen Jerry Vale, benefits the non-profit Barbara Sinatra Children's Center at Eisenhower. Proceeds from the event help provide individual, group and family therapy for physically, sexually and emotionally abused children.

Barbara Sinatra will autograph copies of The Sinatra Celebrity Cookbook.. Barbara, Frank & Friends. Proceeds from the sale of the cookbook, which costs $25, benefit the Children's Center. There are a number of other events and activities as well, which are open to the public. For more information and reservations, call 760-773-1636.

"We are greatly appreciative of the wonderful support the Children's Center receives, from not only the community, but also the various businesses and organizations," said Barbara Sinatra.